SU TENNIS CAMP 2017

Objective of Camp – To provide the Kerrville and surrounding communities with a quality tennis camp for juniors wanting to take their game to the next level at an affordable price and to promote the skills and mental aspects that it takes to be successful in tennis. Our camps will have a variety of fun, social, and recreational activities planned for off-court times give campers a chance to get to know each other, the coaches, and to form long lasting friendships.

Benefits of Schreiner Tennis Camp

- You are getting the benefit of working with college players/coaches as well as high school coaches on a more personal level, we will get to know the player so that we can improve their game.
- Our camp is also very cost effective for the amount of attention each player in camp will receive!
- There is a 1:4 Coach to Camper ratio which ensures a high level of individualized instruction for each camper- we spend time getting to know your kids, and taking an interest in their development!
- Forming lasting relationships with the staff and other campers

Daily Routine: Each camper can expect at least 6 hours of tennis daily, this will include: drills, match play, individual instruction will also be available. Strategy for singles and doubles will be taught extensively, as well as chalk talk on mental toughness and team building. There will also be a tournament towards the end of camp which the campers will be competing against each other.

Arrival – Campers will arrive on Sunday, July 9th from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm – check in will be at the Faulkner dorms first building on campus when you turn in main entrance, and you will be assigned to your dorm room. (Please indicate a roommate preference, if not, then you will be assigned a roommate)

Departure – Thursday, noon, kids will need to be picked up from 11:00 am – 12:00 pm – on the last day of camp; there will be an awards ceremony at the courts or dorms.

Things to bring: Bedding for a twin bed, toiletries, pillows, blankets, towels, sunscreen, racquets, snacks, water jug, plenty of tennis clothes and comfortable tennis shoes, and a positive attitude! There will be social activities each night along with some opportunities for private instruction with one or more of the coaches.

Deposit- All campers are required to pay a 100.00 deposit, to secure themselves a place at camp. This deposit is due by June 10th- to hold a spot in camp. Spaces in camp will be filled on a first come first serve basis- we are expecting to be full again this year!
