

STATEMENT OF PHILOSOPHY – Schreiner Athletics

Participation in Schreiner University Athletic programs prepares student-athletes to live purposeful, ethical and productive lives in their work, faith, families and communities through positive competitive experiences. Schreiner Athletics is committed to achieving these goals by supporting our student-athletes' academic success and by creating experiences that promote the concepts and benefits of sportsmanship, teamwork and the Christian treatment of others without regard to ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation or religious beliefs.